I. INTRODUCTION

The Sivacharya's have been serving the Lord with peace of mind as their clan and optional profession since time immemorial. They have been teaching the scriptures and Shiva Agama worship methods to others from an early age and preparing them for the work of Sivacharya. After a period of time the Vedic mantras and Sivagama methods are specially taught in the Vedic school and the best Sivacharya's are formed. In the early days, the teacher would listen to all the Vedic mantras and Sivagama methods through Sivacharya and record them in his mind. Later he was taught the Vedic and Sivagama methods of writing with his fingers in the sand and with a stylus in the palm grove. All the students, from the king to the poor and the simple, went in search of the teacher's place of work and gave him assignments and memorized what he taught.

The Sivacharya profession is much loved by the Adi Saiva devotees. A great work that can give peace of mind and happiness. Gurus, also known as Sivacharya's, do a wonderful job of cultivating godliness in the minds of others by reciting the Vedic mantras they have learned. It is also their divine profession. Sivacharya advice and counsel can bring about positive changes in the minds of the devotees who come to tell their grievances to God and help them to forget their sorrows and worries and bring peace of mind and happiness. The purpose of this study is to confirm through the following Aries lagna horoscopes that the influence of the Sun, Jupiter and Ketu on the 1st, 9th and 10th houses will be definite if one examines the achievements of the temple staff born in all the 12 literature's from Aries to Pisces.

II. HISTORY OF SIVACHARYA

The Sivagams praise the Sivacharyas as those who appeared directly from the five faces of Shiva. Kamikamam states that Sivacharyas who worship in Shiva temples must be over sixteen years of age and under seventy years of age.

The Sivacharyas were Brahmins who studied the Vedas and the Agamas. Worshipers of Lord Shiva by Sivagama mantras are also known as Sivacharyas, with the profession of reciting the Vedas in general and Sivagama better. Sivacharya is also known as 'Andanar' as he possesses the profession of reading the scriptures after receiving the Upanayana. Since Sivacharya read Sivagama very well and stood by them, he himself has the right to receive the priesthood and thus the teaching status.
